It was great to see so many parents come along to the Parent-Teacher interviews on Tuesday. The teachers really appreciated having the opportunity to share student progress as well as to hear about their students from the parent's point of view.

It is widely acknowledged that children / young people learn best when the significant adults in their lives -parents, teachers, and other family and community members work together to encourage and support them. Schools alone cannot address all of a child's developmental needs. We recognise that the meaningful involvement of parents is essential.

An ongoing theme for NZIS in 2016 has been the TEAM (Together Everyone Achieves More) approach, and this certainly includes viewing Parents and Teachers working together as a TEAM to support student learning and progress.

We look forward to ongoing opportunities to share the education journey together.

Today the first “Change for Change” coins were collected at Assembly. They were then counted by the Year 6 students and the grand total was Rp 450,750.

The money will be added to next term and given to New Zealand House, an Orphanage that NZIS has supported for many years. More about them in future newsletters.

PARENT-TEACHER INTERVIEWS

Thank-you to all the parents who came along to the Interviews. The teachers enjoyed meeting you and sharing your children's reports and learning progress so far this year. There was a turn-out of approximately 90% of our Early Years and Primary parents and lots of positive comments made by parents.

EDUCA

We now have nearly every Early Years and Primary family joined up to Educa, with very positive feedback reported by you during the Parent-Teacher Interviews.

We love that you enjoy seeing the learning stories, photos, videos and other posts about the learning taking place in each classroom.

PLEASE COMMENT on the site, even just add a smiley face, so we know you are reading the posts. Think of it as an educational version of Facebook, where likes and comments mean such a lot.

Our next big goal is for Educa to become more interactive, more of a two-way dialogue, which means we WANT TO RECEIVE FEEDBACK FROM YOU!

A few reminders for the last week:

- All library books/school readers should now be returned to school.
- ASAs are finished for Term 2 – with the exception of a few catch-ups for those who missed on Tuesday due to the school being closed
- All families leaving at the end of this term should now have completed a Withdrawal Form for their child/ren and submitted it to the Primary office.
- Thursday June 16th is the last school day for all Early Years students in Kindy and Pre-school
- Friday June 17th is the last half-day of school for all Primary students.
- Assembly will be held on Friday at 8am as normal. The final Assembly is a Musical Performance by Ms Gina's Music & Drama ASA Group.
- Students will leave at mid-day on Friday, they should be collected promptly at 12pm.
